It looks like this will be the first year in our 70 years of publishing The RANCHER where we will not have any Deschutes County Fair 4-H & FFA pictures and Buyers of the Grand and Reserve Grand Champions in Showmanship and Market.

After repeated attempts for several months ... we are about to give up!

It's a direct slap in the face to the winners and the buyers and Agriculture in General.

Heads Should Roll!

Ivanka

Ivanka bested 88 dogs on her way to the win. There were two goes and a Final at the trial. After battling some tough cattle that did not want to cooperate, she was in 39th place after the 1st Round and would need close to a perfect run the 2nd day to make the finals. This would be quite a feat seeing that the cattle were tough and there were no perfect scores in the first round. She nailed the course and handled the cattle like a seasoned dog in the second run and was one of only three dogs to get a perfect score.

These bulls are Born and Raised on dry land Desert. They are ready for Rough Country and will follow the cows in whatever environment they travel to.

The AI Sires are always high on Scrotal Measurements ... which has a direct correlation to Fertility and Libido. Because of their environment as calves, they are adapted to a Rough, Dry Environment. The Bulls have very moderate Birth Weights and Vitality when born. The cows calve outside totally unassisted ... if they come back to camp in November with no calf, for whatever reason ... they go bye, bye! After years the cream comes to the top.

The Bulls are sold Private Treaty Starting in September until sold out. There is a 90-day Breeding Guarantee. Come pick early! I feed the bulls all winter for Free, and will be semen tested and delivered in the Spring! Asking a down payment and balance when delivered in the Spring.

Nine dogs returned for the final go and she was sitting in second place with the top dog having a 30-point advantage. Ivanka once again perfected the course through some very challenging obstacles, and tough cattle.

Ivanka was handled by Brian Jacobs of Hollister California, longtime trainer and friend of the Winebargers. Brian took over training of her when she was about a year old and said before the trial that he felt Ivanka was one of the best dogs he has ever had the privilege to work with. Looks as if she has proven him right!

SUN-DRIED TOMATO SPAGHETTI!

It's been a busy day at work, the family wants a home cooked meal and I'm tired. My quick solution; Sun-Dried Tomato Spaghetti. It's quick, easy, versatile, vegetarian and tasty. The sun-dried tomato adds a whole lot of flavor while the parsley and chives give the meal depth and the cream cheese and butter allows all the flavors to coat your spaghetti noddles. What more can I say, give it a try and let me know what you think. If you have a great meal I should try and potentially share with our readers, please send your recipes to: jennifer1@reagan.com. I'd love to hear what your quick home cooked meal is, I sure need to add more to my recipe box now that I'm working full time again.

Ingredients:

- 2 oz. Sun-Dried Tomatoes
- 10 oz. Grape Tomatoes
- 2 tsp. Minced Garlic
- 14 oz. Spaghetti
- 1/2 oz. Toasted Sliced Almonds
- 2 tbs. Veggie Stock Concentrate
- 1/4-1/2 cup shredded Parmesan Cheese
- .5 oz. Chives
- .5 oz Parsley
- 2 tbs. Cream Cheese
- 2 tbs. Butter
- 2 tbs. Olive Oil

Directions:

- Cook Spaghetti according to the package. While spaghetti is cooking, finely chop sun-dried tomatoes and halve grape tomatoes lengthwise. Rough chop parsley leaves and chives.
- Heat a drizzle of olive oil in pan and add all of the sun-dried tomatoes, chives and garlic. Cook, stirring occasionally until fragrant about 1-2 minutes. Stir in stock concentrate and add up to 1 cup of water in 1/4 cup increments of water from the boiling water with spaghetti. Simmer until slightly reduced. 3-5 minutes.
- Reduce heat to low and whisk in cream cheese until fully combined. Once spaghetti is cooked add 1/2 the parmesan and 2 tablespoons of butter. Toss to combine. Next add in chopped parsley and season with salt and pepper to your test.
- Divide meal among dinner bowls and top with toasted almonds and parmesan cheese and sprinkle with some parsley for garnish.

Ivanka

Ivanka's sire is "Lazy D Hotshot" owned and bred by the Winebargers of Prineville, Oregon. Ivanka's dam is owned by Katie Star of Paulina, Oregon and was bred by Robin Brown of Broken Circle Border Collies from Council, Idaho. Paige says that "Hotshot" is without a doubt one of the best ranch dogs she has ever had and gets surprised daily with some of the things he can do with livestock. His natural talents and abilities are by far something that every rancher and cowboy would want for their ranch in handling livestock.

THANK YOU

Luke Neathery, owner of Neathery Landscape & Maintenance, LLC for the purchase of this new BOBCAT E20 Compact Excavator and BOBCAT MT100 Mini Track Loader.

The BOBCAT® E20 compact (mini) excavator delivers impressive performance in tight areas with minimal repositioning. The MT100 travels through gates, doorways and other narrow spaces with ease.

From an unknown origin, this comfortable arm chair is in the shop for the seat to be rewoven. The diamond shaped design is woven through a base of hand woven structure. Sounds complicated. Ivanka's grandsire "Lazy D Milton" also raised and trained by the Winebargers, is not only an exceptional ranch dog but Paige won numerous prestigious trials with him across the West.

The Winebargers had plans to go to Vernon, Texas to watch the whole event, but the Crook County's Cowgirls Volleyball team made the state tournament and their daughter Callie is a player for the team.

With their games and the trial overlapping, Kirk canceled his flight and Paige was able to attend for just the first round. She then had to catch a red eye from Dallas to Eugene to be able to watch all of Callie's matches. The choice was easy and the Cowgirls who were seeded 8th going into the tournament finished 4th in the 4A Division. The Winebargers were able to watch Ivanka on a live feed while on break from Volleyball.
